

Update: China's investigations on 107 retracted papers

Chinese authorities held a press conference to share updates on the 107 retracted paper case on 27th July. Here is an overall picture of this retraction case

Some of the implications for those found guilty of misconduct are:

- stopping projects they are involved in
- revoking their designation
- cancelling their scientific recognition, academic awards & honorary titles
- taking back their funding